

Message from Coach Dana Cordova :

Dear Parents,

The Tiffin University Women's Volleyball team would like to invite you to the 2014 Skills Camp! This camp is dedicated to teaching players the fundamentals that have been the foundation of our volleyball program since its inception. We would like to invite your child to receive first class instruction from a professional coaching staff and our players in hopes that your children will go on to compete as a collegiate student-athlete. Let us help you achieve your child's goals and dreams through a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and discipline! We hope to see you here at Tiffin University on July 21st-24th for our Skills Camp, ready to watch your children and teens become better team players and individuals!

GO DRAGONS!

Sincerely,
Dana Cordova
Head Volleyball Coach
